To Whom It May Concern

Re: MLM Incorporated Recommendation

Machi Medrzichi and MLM Incorporated have completed numerous commercial construction projects for us, including renovations of office and retail locations and ground up construction such as a Starbucks. We continue to be very impressed with the overall quality and value of their work. Several key aspects stood out in our opinion:

- MLM personnel are honest and trustworthy. Machi takes full responsibility for the process and the final product.
- Always very responsive, Machi communicates regularly and clearly, keeping us advised on progress, conditions and issues.
- Machi works with us on the budget, providing an honest, fair competitive price without sacrificing quality and with an eye on providing exceptional value. He provides insight from his experience, his understanding of the project and our expectations that to minimize concerns and unforeseen issues.
- Workmanship is solid and timely. Promises and schedules are always met.
- The job is done right. Opportunities for savings and greater value are always explored, and quality control is top notch.
- Machi promptly communicates and professionally handles any unexpected problems, minimizing disruption. Customer satisfaction comes first, without fail.

We work with many contractors. MLM ranks among those we prefer to work with the most. We look forward to a long relationship. MLM comes with our highest recommendation to their prospective customers.
